

Notes In Open Position

There are three octaves in open position. The low octave is written in black, the middle octave is written in blue, and the high octave is written in red. The third fret of the second string is middle D and it is written on the fourth line in treble clef.

